

Bradley M. Fink

Objective To represent Jesus Christ in any environment through words and actions, in work and play.

Education 1999 – 2003 Arkansas Tech University Russellville, Arkansas

- Economics
- Finance
 - 3.75 GPA

Interests and Activities at ATU

- Two-year member of the baseball team
- Student Government Association
- Student Advisory Board
- Student Business Board
- Leader of Ministry Teams at Wesley Foundation

2003 – 2004 George W. Truett Seminary Waco, Texas

- Master of Divinity
 - 20 of 95 hours completed
 - 3.5 GPA

Qualified Experience

May 2002 – August 2002 T Bar M Sports Camp New Braunfels, Texas

- Full-summer baseball coach
- Responsible for 13 campers along with two other coaches

January 2003 – May 2003 Fastpitch World Russellville, Arkansas

- Baseball instructor for private, group, and team lessons

May 2003 – August 2003 T Bar M Sports Camp New Braunfels, Texas

- Full-summer on leadership staff
- Responsible for planning and orchestrating nightly events
- Responsible for leading a covenant group of coaches

August 2004 – August 2005 T Bar M Sports Camp New Braunfels, Texas

- Currently involved in a one-year discipleship program
- Responsible for planning and leading varied activities for groups of all sizes
- Responsible for facilitating low and high rope elements
- Received National Ropes Course Facilitator certification

Extracurricular Activities

- Volunteer tutor all four years of college at local elementary schools
- Served as a mentor through a program called Age to Age for two years
- Currently mentoring a young man in foster care in high school
- Volunteer work at a local Jr. High FCA

References

Zach Bynum
T Bar M Sports Camp Operations
(830) 620-4263
2549 Hwy. 46 W. New Braunfels, Texas 78132

Marc Crozier
T Bar M Camps Challenge Course Director
(830) 620-4263
2549 Hwy. 46 W. New Braunfels, Texas 78132

Rev. David Scroggin
Wesley Foundation Head Pastor at Arkansas Tech University
(479) 968-4159
1111 North El Paso Russellville, Arkansas 72801